

Naples For The Arts

To Whom It May Concern:

Naples For The Arts will be sponsoring the 5th fine arts and crafts show with festival activities on July 26, 2014. It will be annual event. Profits will be donated to the Town of Naples to help them continue to improve and complete the architectural design that was intended for the causeway and the town of Naples.

The Naples Main Street committee is inviting you to become part of this Event. Many businesses are sponsoring the show by buying advertising on the website and in the program, which will be given out on the day of the show, and the next weekend. Website ads will be seen from the week of your donation (which could be for several months before and after the show, until next year).

There are different levels of participation and any of these levels if sponsored would be appreciated.

- Your logo in program and your business link on the Naples For The Arts website... $110
